Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—Do they know that it is being used?

Mr. T. V. Ramalinga Ayyar.—No information.

of the Trichur Mental Hospital recommended for a Brahmin cook;

the names of the visitors who made the recommendations; the number of Brahmin lunatics in the hospital at present?

Diwan Bahadur Dr. V. Verghese.—Four.

Messrs. K. S. Velu.
Balarama Ayyar.
K. Kochugovinda Marar.
S. F. Nunez.

There are two Brahmin lunatics in the hospital at present. One male and one female.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—May I know what action has been taken on this recommendation? The Honorary Visitors recommended four times for a Brahmin cook. I want to know what action was taken on those recommendations?

Diwan Bahadur Dr. V. Verghese.—Government have ordered the appointment of a Brahmin cook, if there are many Brahmin inmates. Just at that time there was one Brahmin patient whose relations volunteered to buy or bring food from their house or a Brahmin hotel, Government defraying the expenses therefor. Now in the case of the two Brahmin lunatics, when their relations were asked to do as in the above case, they were unwilling. They said that they had no objection to the lunatics being fed from the institution itself.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—Only the relations said that they had no objection.

Diwan Bahadur Dr. V. Verghese.—The lunatics also; of course they had no objection. (Laughter.)

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—Lunatics themselves! Did they not consider all these points when they made this recommendation?

Diwan Bahadur Dr. V. Verghese.—Yes, I should think so.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—Then why no importance was attached to that recommendation?

Diwan Bahadur Dr. V. Verghese.—The Government has ordered that a Brahmin cook may be employed if the real necessity arises.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—There are two.

Diwan Bahadur Dr. V Verghese.—For the sake of even two, both of them are females.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—One male and one female.

Diwan Bahadur Dr. V. Verghese.—Yes, for the sake of these two, none was appointed since their relations volunteered to bring food and Government promised to defray the expenses. So, no action was taken.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—What is the number required for appointing one Brahmin cook? You said when there are sufficient number; how many do you mean by saying that?

Diwan Bahadur Dr. V. Verghese.—There is no hard-and-fast rule as regards that. If there is insistant demand from the relations or patients, then it will be considered. I referred to the Calicut Mental Hospital where there are 16 or 17 Brahmin lunatics. No Brahmin cook there. I know the British Government is paying serious attention to the particular sentiments of caste people, and with all that they have not appointed a Brahmin cook there. So I thought, if you had at least half the number here, I would undertake to appoint a Brahmin cook. The thing is a Brahmin cook wants Rs. 25 a month.

President.—If you say 'a reasonable number', then the further supplementary question will be what is the reasonable number. (Laughter.)

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—I think nobody will have any objection to take food from the Brahmin cook. So why not appoint a Brahmin there instead of the other? He too is to be paid.

Diwan Bahadur Dr. V. Verghese.—A Brahmin requires excessive payment. A Brahmin cook wants Rs. 25 whereas this man wants only Rs. 6 per month.

Pay of Village Officers.

(c) if so, what was the assurance given to them by the Diwan Peishkar and the Diwan during the deputation;

(d) how does the matter now stand?

Mr. T. M. Krishna Menon.—(a) Yes.

(b) Yes.

(c) The Diwan Peishkar gave them the hope that their petition would be favourably considered.

(d) The matter is engaging the attention of the Government.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—Was any reply sent to the petitioners?
